My car is on its last limb!! As long as you have the required maintenance performed on this car it will definitely give you your money's worth!! My only dislike is the interior door handles. The material peeled off!! But other than that I love this car!! I commute to work about miles everyday, and this car has served me well for , miles. I change the oil every 3, miles. I've changed with suspension 3 times, brakes have been done 3 times. Not a big deal considering when it was replaced. I treat this car well, and it returns the favor. You can't get any better than that. My car, totaled, but I walked away. First, the Camry is very comfortable and very reliable. Other than the regular maintenance, I have never had to have anything fixed. I was just in a major car accident, the Camry saved my life! A minivan pulled out in front of me, I didn't even have time to go for the brakes. The car did exactly what it was built to do, all of the airbags deployed, The engine compartment collapsed and the engine dropped down. The passenger compartment was undamaged. I walked away with only a small cut on my finger and some heavy bruises from the seatbelt! The Camry is totaled, but I'm okay! See all reviews of the Used Toyota Camry. Write a review.
